

Please Visit Our Shared Photo Folder

We would love to share photos and learn more about the memories they depict and the people who appear in them. Please visit: www.WilliamYoungRoberson.com > Photo Gallery > Shared Folder.

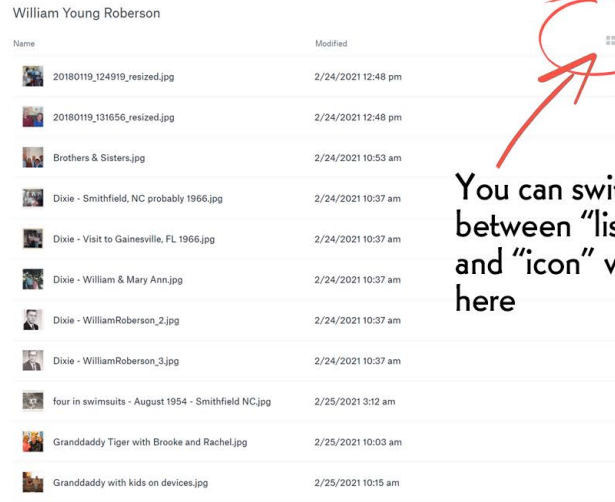

As we upload photos to the site, I will add them to the shared folder, so it might take a day or two before they appear in the shared folder.

When you visit the shared folder, you may see an "icon" view, or a "list" view:

List View:

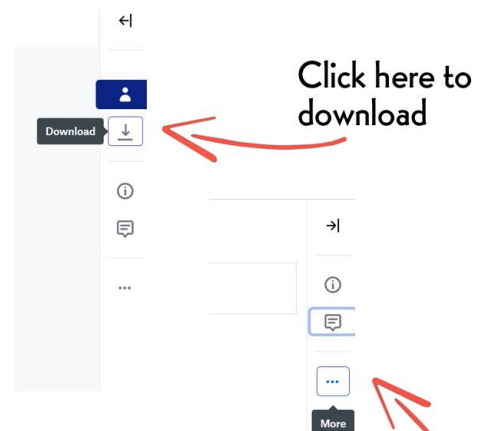

You can switch between "list" and "icon" views here

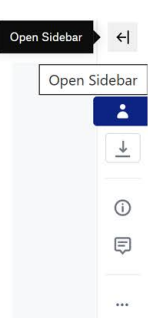

When you select a photo, in the upper left corner you will see some information and different symbols.

Here is what the symbols mean:

You may need to click the 3 dots for more options, if you don't see the option to download

This symbol allows you to open and close the sidebar

Comments: Please add your comments to share the names, ages, locations, memories, & information associated with each photo that you know about.
